

PINA MAGRI

Born in the US, she has a diploma in Voice at the Conservatorio "Santa Cecilia" in Roma. She studied opera with maestri of the caliber of Campogalliani and completed master classes at the Mozarteum in Salzburg, the Opéra Comique in Paris, the Scuola di Musica in Fiesole, and the Accademia Chigiana in Siena where she also won a scholarship. Soprano for three seasons at the Maggio Musicale Fiorentino at the Florence Opera, she is also dedicated to musical theatre and studied with Broadway coaches in New York. She has performed in many theatres such as Teatro Verdi in Florence, Colosseo in Turin, Teatro Sistina in Rome, Anfiteatro Romano in Arezzo...

She has recorded two famous soundtracks as soloist for Ennio Morricone Il Principe del Deserto with Omar Sharif Eliot Gould and Carol Alt, Hamlet by Zeffirelli with Mel Gibson, and she is the soprano soloist of the cult movie Phenomena / Creepers by Dario Argento.

As vocalist she has appeared on national Italian RAI-Television in Fantastico, Partita Doppia, Domenica In, Europa Europa... with artists such as Montesano, Anna Oxa, Raffaella Carrà, Johnny Dorelli, Pippo Baudo, Mara Venier...As vocalist she has also recorded movies for Walt Disney, Renato Zero, Nino Frassica, Tony Esposito, Vladimir Cosma...

She sang the main role Psiche in a new musical Amore Amore by Gino Landi and was Sybil Vane in the 2004 National Tour of the new musical Il ritratto di Dorian Gray at Teatro Bellini Naples, Teatro Donizetti Bergamo, Teatro Rossetti Trieste...

She does concert/theatre work in Italy and abroad with her one woman shows Atmosfera di Broadway, Divine Divas and collaborates with pianist Antonello Vannucchi of the orchestra RAI-Television in From Bach to Broadway, From the Spiritual to the Musical, A Christmas Concert...and other concerts she has created.

Recently, she collaborated in the creation of Leggende Mediterranee: concerto etnico sinfonico which debuted at the Teatro Re of Licata in Sicilia. For the city of Ladispoli she debuted with pianist Maria Di Pasquale in the American Duo version of her concert A Night in New York.

She has sung several times as soloist of the psalms for Pope John Paul II° and is a soprano in the Cappella Musicale of the Basilica of Saint John in Lateran in Rome.

She has a B.A. in French and Art History from Smith College. As songwriter she is a member of SIAE.

In the Aula Magna of the University La Sapienza of Roma she was awarded the Premio Gold Medal and Diploma in recognition of her contribution to American and Italian music in Europe.

Broadway Atmospheres "one woman on stage"

Part I

Evita

Webber

Don't cry for me Argentina

My Fair Lady

Lerner

Wouldn't it be lovely

I could have danced all night

West Side Story

Bernstein

Tonight

I feel pretty

Cats

Webber

Memory

The Wizard of Oz

Arlen

Over the Rainbow

Part II

The Phantom of the Opera Webber

"the mask" Medley

Porgy and Bess

Gershwin

Summertime

A Chorus Line

Hamlisch

One

New York New York

Kander

New York New York